Your family home is the principal home of your parent(s)/guardian(s). To determine whether your family home is in an area that is inner regional, outer regional, remote or very remote, use the Student Regional Area Search tool, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/abstudy

The parental income threshold is $160,000. This will increase by $10,000 for each eligible sibling. An eligible sibling is a sibling younger than 22, unless they are:

- living away from home and is/was a member of a couple
- living away from home and has/had a dependent child
- receiving Youth Allowance or Disability Support Pension as an independent due to unreasonable to live at home
- in state care.

You can also pick which financial year you use to calculate parental income. You can choose from 1 of 3 financial years – whichever is most beneficial for you. It can be either the financial year:

- before you take a gap year, referred to as PRE-GAP year
- of your gap year, referred to as BASE year
- following your gap year, referred to as POST-BASE year.

For more information, go to servicesaustralia.gov.au/youthallowance
